

Tips to get resume shortlisted at Amazon

Applied for multiple roles/times at Amazon and still not getting an interview call?

- Hold on from applying further – take a step back – reflect on why your resume is not getting shortlisted
- You might not get feedback on why your resume was not shortlisted
- But it should not be difficult if you try and understand what hiring managers and recruiters are looking for

Find the right role

- Amazon has thousands of openings
- You will have to browse through hundreds of jobs to find matching role(s)
- Do not apply randomly – it does not increase your chances.

Tailored Resume

- Ensure your resume is tailored for the job you are applying for
- If you are an experienced professional then you might have worked on multiple technologies / worn multiple hats in various jobs.
- Keep your resume short and concise specific to the job role you are applying for.

Get a Referral

- If you know an Amazonian, reach out and ask for advise on which roles might be a good fit and if they can refer you.
- Having a strong referral is the best way to skip the line.
- If you don't know an Amazonian - build you network :)

Let Amazon Recruiters find you

- Amazon Recruiters are always on hunt for candidates
- Ensure your LinkedIn profile is upto date and your About section is relevant
- Add recruiters to your network – generally they are very friendly bunch
- Be active on LinkedIn by sharing your knowledge on LinkedIn and let them find you.

Resume got shortlisted. What next?

Take time to prepare well – Do no rush to get your interview scheduled.

Lot of information available online to help you prepare.

Start here - https://www.amazon.jobs/en-gb/landing_pages/interviewing-at-amazon