Reference: FAQs • AWS Site-to-Site VPN creates a secure connection between your datacenter or branch office and your AWS cloud resources. What? Data transferred between your VPC and datacenter routes over an encrypted VPN connection using IPsec to help maintain the Category: confidentiality and integrity of data in transit. Networking and Content • With AWS Site-to-Site VPN you don't have to manage 3rd-party or custom VPN solutions built using EC2 instances. Delivery Why? • It has native integration with AWS Transit Gateway which allows customers to scale the connectivity to multiple VPCs with a single Transit Gateway-based VPN connection. You want to extend your existing on-premises network into a VPC. When? You want to host Amazon VPCs behind your corporate firewall and seamlessly move your IT resources, without changing the way your users access these applications. AWS Site-to-Site VPN AWS Site-to-Site VPN service is a regional service. Where? • It offers two VPN tunnels across multiple AZs, between a virtual private gateway or a transit gateway on the AWS side, and a customer gateway (which represents a physical device or software application) on the remote (on-premises) side. AWS Site-to-Site VPN is a fully-managed service. Who? • To enable instances in your VPC to reach your customer gateway, you must configure your route table to include the Complete book: routes used by your Site-to-Site VPN connection and point them to your virtual private gateway or transit gateway. Click Here • You can create the Site-to-Site VPN connection using the customer gateway in combination with the virtual private gateway How? or transit gateway. After you create the Site-to-Site VPN connection, you can download a sample configuration file to use Created by: for configuring the customer gateway device. Ashish Prajapati How • You are charged for each VPN connection hour that your VPN connection is provisioned and available. Each partial VPN much? connection-hour consumed is billed as a full hour. You also incur standard AWS data transfer charges for all data transferred via the VPN connection.